Discover Platinum Gas Card - A card for these times.

by Derek Lenehan

The gasoline price hike has been growing steadily since we entered the new millennium. Devastating events, both domestic and abroad, and seemingly without end, are contributing to pinch dollars out of everyone's wallets at the pump. There are multiple ways to lower your gas bill, but there are not many that you can do from the chair you are sitting in right now that will also net you cash back on all your other purchases □ without an annual fee. One way that fits such a description is the Discover Platinum Gas Card.

The Discover Platinum Gas Card offers 5% cash back on all gasoline purchases made with the card, as well as 1% cash back on every other purchase paid for with the card. Procrastinators can be assured by this card, its cash rewards will never expire, which means no empty, abandoned feeling after seeing years worth of rewards vanish without being used.

Applicants may be uncertain on whether or not a card is worth getting primarily for gasoline benefits. However, with the uncertainty of oil supplies from Iraq and Iran, and the threat of the hurricane season that feels like it begins immediately after it ends, gas prices are susceptible to surges beyond levels seen yet. The time for a card tailor-made for easing the sting at the pumps has never been greater than now.

The 1% cash back on all other purchases made with the card can be as useful as the 5% cash back on gas purchases. That's one penny for every a dollar a consumer uses for a purchase □ on anything. If you used the card for monthly utilities and rent that added up to $2,000, you regain $20. And that's only one fraction of things the card can be used for.

For an entire year, new users of the Discover Platinum Gas Card can enjoy 0% APR on purchases and balance transfers, in addition to the cash back perks. A $0 fraud liability policy adds security to a card already ideal for uncertain times.

The Discover Platinum Gas Card may intimidate potential card-holders because of the word platinum. While good credit is a first step towards approval for any credit card, the very first step for anyone has to be simply applying. With a fast online application process, you've got nothing to lose.
